

An Invitation

My beloved, I desire your presence for an evening ritual of love. I want to teach you how to touch me, how to please me... We will enjoy wine, music, and beautiful things together. All I ask is that you let me take the lead. This will be a love play, like theater, in which I allow you to honor me as a living Goddess. As an embodiment of the divine feminine. It helps increase my sense of spiritual fulfillment and heals my emotional wounds. It will also strengthen our bond. Will you be my daka for the evening? My tantric healer, my lover, my devotee? I hope you will say yes, because I dream of spending this time with you. ♥

All my love,

Exalted Mystic Union
